by the Recent Federal Communications Commission Order*

Dear Chief Clerk Thigpen:

Enclosed herewith for filing, please find Teligent, Inc.'s ("Teligent") intraLATA toll dialing parity plan and revised sample customer notice. Teligent originally filed its dialing parity plan with the North Carolina Utilities Commission on April 22, 1999, and revised its plan on June 2, 1999, pursuant to the Federal Communications Commission's recent order.¹

Should any questions arise regarding this filing, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned at (703) 762-5430.

Respectfully submitted,

Carly B. Tolchin

TELIGENT, INC.
DIALING PARITY PLAN

I. OBJECTIVE/PURPOSE

In compliance with the Federal Communications Commission's recent intraLATA toll dialing parity order,¹ Teligent, Inc. ("Teligent") files its plan for implementing intraLATA equal access in areas of the State in which it is authorized to provide service.² Under the plan, Teligent's customers choose an interexchange carrier ("IXC") from a list of IXCs that are Teligent access customers. The customers' intraLATA toll calls are then routed to the chosen IXC automatically, without the use of access codes.

II. IMPLEMENTATION SCHEDULE

Teligent has already launched service in the State, in accordance with the provisions set forth in this plan.

III. CARRIER SELECTION PROCEDURES

Teligent has implemented a full 2-PIC carrier selection methodology within the State. With the full 2-PIC methodology, Teligent customers are able to presubscribe to one IXC, including Teligent, for interLATA toll calls and to presubscribe to the same or a different IXC for intraLATA toll calls. Teligent has endeavored to contact as many IXCs as possible regarding the opportunity to provide toll service to Teligent customers.

Customers are informed of the opportunity to choose both an intraLATA toll carrier PIC and an interLATA PIC (see attached). At the customer's request, Teligent provides a list of IXCs that are available for PIC selection. That list is presented in a competitively neutral manner.

Customers who do not choose an intraLATA toll carrier are identified within Teligent's system as "no-PIC." Until making an affirmative intraLATA toll PIC selection, these customers must dial an access code in order to place intraLATA toll calls.

² IntraLATA toll service includes: 1+, 0+ and home NPA Directory Assistance.

IV. CARRIER NOTIFICATION

Prior to launching service in the State, Teligent contacted as many IXCs as possible regarding the opportunity to provide toll service to Teligent customers. In addition, any IXC that wishes to serve Teligent customers are asked to submit to Teligent an Access Service Request ("ASR") form for each switch to which it desires access. If a customer requests access to an IXC not on the list, Teligent will contact the IXC on the customer's behalf. IXCs are informed that the Teligent switches available for exchange access service are identified in either NECA Tariff No. 4 or Teligent's Tariff FCC No. 3. Once Teligent receives and processes an IXC's ASR, that carrier is added to the list of IXCs available for customer selection.

In compliance with the Federal Communications Commission's recent IntraLATA toll dialing parity order,¹ Teligent, Inc. Re: *Teligent, Inc.'s Response to Commission Staff's Recommendation Regarding
Its IntraLATA Toll Dialing Parity Plan Filed with the Commission on April 21, 1999*

Dear Ms. Fulker:

Per my telephone conversation with Tom Turner of the Commission staff yesterday afternoon, I am writing to clarify certain outstanding issues regarding Teligent's IntraLATA Toll Dialing Parity Plan filed with the Commission on April 21, 1999.

- (1) Implementation Schedule: Teligent is currently not offering local service within the state of Oregon, but plans to launch commercial local service in the third quarter of 1999. Immediately upon initiation of service, Teligent will offer all of its customers the option of choosing an intraLATA toll service provider separate from their interLATA toll service provider.
- (2) Carrier Selection Procedures, 1st Paragraph: Any customer choosing to use Teligent's service will be informed of the choice for selecting an intraLATA toll carrier and that a carrier list is available for review when making such a selection. Upon launch of its service, Teligent, as a matter of policy, programs all of its switches to automatically accept a 2-PIC selection.
- (3) Sample Customer Notice: A customer notice will not be necessary since Teligent will inform all customers of the 2-PIC choice and the availability of a list of available carriers upon its initiation of service.

According to Mr. Turner, staff plans to recommend approval of Teligent's intraLATA toll dialing plan with these clarifications. Please call me immediately at (703) 762-5284 if this not the case. Thank you.

Please date-stamp the enclosed receipt copy and return it in the self-addressed envelope provided. Should any questions arise regarding this filing, please do not hesitate to contact me at (703) 762-5284.

I. OBJECTIVE/PURPOSE

In compliance with the Federal Communications Commission's recent IntraLATA toll dialing parity order,¹ Teligent, Inc. ("Teligent") files its plan for implementing intraLATA equal access in areas of the State in which it is authorized to provide service. Under the plan, Teligent's customers will be able to choose an interexchange carrier ("IXC") from a list of IXCs that are Teligent access customers. The customers' intraLATA toll calls will then be routed to the chosen IXC automatically, without the use of access codes.

II. IMPLEMENTATION SCHEDULE

Prior to launching service in a state, Teligent notifies as many IXCs as possible regarding its planned service launch and files an access services tariff, setting forth the rates, terms and conditions of its exchange access service offerings.

III. CARRIER SELECTION PROCEDURES

Upon launch of its services, Teligent implements a 2-PIC carrier selection methodology within the State. With the 2-PIC methodology, customers are able to presubscribe to one IXC, including Teligent, for interLATA toll calls and to presubscribe to the same or a different IXC for intraLATA toll calls. Customers are informed of the opportunity to choose both an intraLATA and interLATA PIC. At the customer's request, Teligent will provide a list of IXCs that are available for PIC selection. That list will be presented in a competitively neutral manner.

Customers who do not affirmatively choose an intraLATA toll carrier will be identified within Teligent's system as "no-PIC." Until making an affirmative intraLATA toll PIC selection, these customers will be required to dial an access code in order to place intraLATA toll calls.

IV. CARRIER NOTIFICATION

Prior to launching service in a state, Teligent contacts as many IXC's as possible regarding the opportunity to provide toll service to Teligent customers. Interested carriers are asked to submit to Teligent an Access Service Request ("ASR") form for each switch to which it desires access. Teligent lists its switches available for exchange access service in either NECA Tariff No. 4 or Teligent's Tariff FCC No. 3. Once Teligent receives and processes an IXC's ASR, that carrier is added to the list of IXC's available for customer selection.
